1 The ball goes directly into the opponent's goal from a corner kick. The referee should:

Disallow the goal.

None of the presented answers are correct.

Allow the goal.

Allow the goal only if the ball was played twice before entering the goal.

2 If opposing teams choose to be on opposite sides of the field, they:

must be directly opposite each other.

are not allowed to be on opposite sides.

may be diagonally across from each other.

must make prior arrangements and notify the referee before the game.

3 What goal differential will terminate the game when attained at the end of the first half or secured at any point during the second half?

12

10

5

4 Player A2 is in an offside position when player A3 takes a shot on goal which the goalkeeper attempts to save and rebounds from the goalkeeper to A2. A2 shoots and scores. Ruling:

Disallow the goal and award a penalty kick to Team A.

Disallow the goal and award a goal kick to Team B.

Disallow the goal and award an indirect free kick to Team B.

Allow the goal.

5 A player shall be disqualified, without caution, by the official when he or she has completed the following action:

Flagrantly fouling the goalkeeper in possession of the ball.

Faking an injury.

Hand ball.

Kicking the ball out of bounds.

6 For any delayed, excessive or prolonged act(s) by which a player(s) attempts to focus attention upon himself/herself and/or prohibits a timely restart of the game:

The player shall be cautioned.

The referee need not take any action.

The player shall be warned.

The player shall be disqualified (red card).

7 Any delayed, excessive or prolonged act(s) by which a player(s) attempts to focus attention upon himself/herself and/or prohibits a timely restart of the game, shall be issued what card?

Blue Card Only

Yellow Card Only

Red Card Only

Yellow/Red Combination

8 The defending team kicks the ball across the goal line near the corner flag. The corner area on that side of the field is very muddy.

The game is abandoned due to unplayable surface.

The kick must be taken from the correct corner regardless of the muddy conditions.

The kick can be taken from outside the corner arc. The referee should permit the attacking team to take the corner kick from the other side of the field.

9 The goalkeeper, before taking a goal kick, moves the spotted ball from the right side of the goal area to the left side of the goal area.

The referee shall stop the clock and restart once the ball is put into play.

If this is deemed a time-wasting ploy, the referee shall stop the clock and caution the goalkeeper.

This is allowed.

If this is considered time-wasting, the referee shall award an indirect kick.

10 B19 is standing in an offside position. B12 kicks the ball forward but the ball deflects off A11 to B19. B19 should be:

Penalized for being offside.

Issued a caution for being offside.

Allowed to continue with play so long as B19 passes the ball to B12.

Allowed to continue with play.

11 Any delayed, excessive or prolonged act(s) by which a player(s) attempts to focus attention upon himself/herself and/or prohibits a timely restart of the game, shall be issued what card?

Yellow/Red Combination

Blue Card Only

Red Card Only

Yellow Card Only

12 Player A of the attacking team is clearly in an offside position when her teammate delivers the ball to her with a throw-in. She collects the ball and kicks it into the goal. The referee should:

Award an indirect free kick to Team B.

Award a goal to Team A.

Award a re-take to Team A.

Award a goal kick to Team B.

13 A3 receives the ball directly from a corner kick taken by A5, while A3 is standing in an offside position. A3 should be:

Issued a verbal warning for being in an offside position

Cautioned and re-take the corner kick

Cautioned and award an indirect free kick to the opposing team

Allowed to continue with play

14 If during a penalty kick the kick goes directly over the goal and there is a violation by the attacking team, the restart is:

Goal kick.

Retake.

Indirect free kick.

Corner kick.

15 A2, in an offside position, receives a goal kick taken by B1. The referee shall:

Penalize Team A for A2 being offside.

Allow play to continue as this is permitted by rule.

Only call offside if a goal is scored.
During the game, the referee notices that B30 has tape on her ear lobes. Closer observation indicates that there are earrings underneath the tape. The referee should:
- Wait until the next stoppage; and since this is the first caution for illegal equipment, caution the Team B head coach and require B30 to leave the game.
- Wait until the next stoppage, feel B30's ear lobes to check for earrings under the tape and, if so, caution the Team B head coach and require B30 to leave the game.
Since the referee did not notice the tape before the game, the referee should take no action.
Stop the game, caution the Team B head coach and require B30 to leave the game.

Team B's head coach was cautioned earlier in the game after the referee discovered B5 was wearing an earring while playing in the game. Twenty-seven minutes later, the referee discovers that B1 is not wearing shinguards.
Since Team B has already been cautioned for an illegally equipped player, the referee may ignore the absence of shinguards on B1.
B1 is cautioned for being illegally equipped. She is required to leave the field and, as the goalkeeper, must be replaced by either a substitute or a field player.
The Team B head coach should receive a second caution for an illegally equipped player. The Team B coach is disqualified for receiving a second caution.
Both B1 and the Team B head coach should be cautioned.

Player A's throw-in lands completely outside the touchline, without having broken the plane of the touchline, and bounds into the field of play.
- The referee awards a throw-in to Team B.
- The referee issues a team caution for delay of game.
- The referee orders a re-throw by Team A since the ball never was put into play.
- The referee allows play to continue.

The referee inadvertently sounds the whistle.

The official signal for a goal scored is:
- Stopping the clock and pointing to the center of the field.
- Stopping the clock.
- Blowing the whistle.
- Raising both hands above the head.

At the taking of a tie-breaking kick from the penalty mark, goalkeeper A1 deflects the kicked ball. As he celebrates, the ball's momentum causes it to strike the ground and spin into the goal. The referee should:
- Disallow the goal as it happened after the goalkeeper's initial touch.
- Allow the goal.
- Allow the goal and caution the goalkeeper for the celebration.

Which of these is true about taunting?
- Taunting is a misconduct and requires a caution to the offender.
- Taunting is a misconduct and requires that the offending player be disqualified.
- Taunting is a misconduct and requires a caution to the offender.
- It is not required that the player be disqualified.

When inspecting the game balls, the official determines that the home team has only one satisfactory game ball. The official may choose two additional game balls offered by the opposing team.
- TRUE
- FALSE

The ball has gone out for a throw-in by Team A. While A9 is retrieving the ball, the Team A coach says "Sub ref!" and instructs A5, who is sitting on the bench, to enter the game for A11. What should be the referee's response?
- Allow A5 to enter the game during this dead ball.
- Only allow Team B substitutes to enter.
- Not allow the substitution since player A5 had not reported to the scorer or official area prior to the dead ball.
- The referee allows the substitution but issues a caution to the Team A coach for delay of game.
- None of the presented answers are correct.

On a throw-in, the ball is in play:
- When it leaves the hands of the thrower and breaks the plane of the touchline.
- When it touches a second player.
- When it touches the playing surface.
- When it leaves the hands of the thrower.

Team A is winning and repeatedly substitutes to consume time. The official should:
- Take no action as subbing is allowed.
- Immediately caution the coach.
- Order the timer to stop the clock and notify the offending team's coach that continuing to substitute in this manner will be considered unsporting conduct.
- Take no action but write up the incident in his or her game report.

The referee has awarded Team B a penalty kick. As B4 runs toward the ball to take the kick, A5 enters the penalty area before B4 kicks the ball. The referee should:
- Allow the play to continue and award a goal kick if the kick by B4 goes untouched over the goal.
- Allow the play to continue and award a corner kick if the kick by B4 is played by the goalkeeper who pushes the ball over the goal line outside of the goal.
- Allow the play to continue and award a goal if the kick by B4 enters the goal.
- Blow the whistle as soon as A enters the penalty area.

A player (other than a goalkeeper within his/her own penalty area) who deliberately handles the ball, attempting to prevent a goal, and the goal is not scored shall be issued what card?
- Yellow/Red Combination
- Red Card Only
- Blue Card Only
- Yellow Card Only
- Yellow/Red Combination

Which of these is true about taunting?
- Taunting is a misconduct and requires a caution to the offender.
- Taunting is a misconduct and requires that the offending player be disqualified.
- It is not required that the player be disqualified.
- Both B1 and the Team B head coach should be cautioned.
During play, a field player is injured and removed from the field. The team may substitute an unlimited number of players. The team must replace the injured field player. The team may only replace the injured player. The team may substitute an unlimited number of players.

An unlimited number of players may be substituted from the bench except in which of the following situations:
- When a player is cautioned.
- At the start of the second period.
- When a goal is scored.
- When a player is injured and removed from the field.

A12 has been cautioned by the referee for unsporting behavior. While A12 is still on the field and before substitute A9 is beckoned onto the field by the referee, A12 directs insulting language to the referee. A12 has already been cautioned and cannot be shown a second card in this situation. A12’s actions are all part of the cautionsing process and the referee should ignore his language.

The referee shall:
- Rule no goal and order the kick to be retaken.
- Award a goal and restart with a kickoff.
- Not award a goal and restart with a goal kick.
- Award a goal and restart with a corner kick.

A9 scores a goal to make the score 1-0 with 1:30 left in the game. He runs toward the portion of the spectators dominated by his school’s supporters, removes his shirt and waves it above his head.

A9 is guilty of taunting. The referee should disqualify A9.
A9 is not guilty of an offense. Play should restart with a Team B kickoff.
A9 is guilty of an excessive act that focuses attention on himself. The referee should caution A9.
A9 is guilty of an excessive act that focuses attention on himself. The referee should disqualify A9.

The referee has awarded a penalty kick to Team B. The goalkeeper, A1, stands with his back to the ball. The referee shall:
- Rule no goal and order the kick to be retaken.
- Award a goal and restart with a kickoff.
- Not award a goal and restart with a goal kick.
- Award a goal and restart with a corner kick.

Team B’s head coach receives a second caution and is disqualified for receiving a second caution. The referee shall:
- Display both the yellow and the red card at the same time in the same hand.
- Display the yellow card indicating the subsequent caution immediately followed by a red card.
- Display both the yellow and the red card at the same time in the same hand.

A9 scores a goal to make the score 1-0 with 1:30 left in the game. He runs toward the portion of the spectators dominated by his school’s supporters, removes his shirt and waves it above his head.

A9 is guilty of taunting. The referee should disqualify A9.
A9 is not guilty of an offense. Play should restart with a Team B kickoff.
A9 is guilty of an excessive act that focuses attention on himself. The referee should caution A9.
A9 is guilty of an excessive act that focuses attention on himself. The referee should disqualify A9.

The referee shall award a corner kick.
The referee shall not award a goal and restart the game with a goal kick.
The referee will award a goal kick to Team B.
The referee will award an indirect free kick to Team A.

The referee observes a foul, but does not penalize it because she perceives an advantage; however, the advantage does not develop.

The referee will not penalize the foul. The referee will stop play caution the player who committed the original foul and re-start with a direct free kick.
The referee will let play continue because advantage was given.
The referee will stop play the player who committed the original foul and re-start with an indirect free kick.
The referee shall immediately stop play and penalize the original foul.
The referee shall award a goal kick to Team B.
The referee shall award a goal kick to Team A.
The referee shall award a corner kick.

The referee has awarded Team B a penalty kick. The goalkeeper, A1, stands with his back to the ball. The referee shall:
- Require the goalkeeper to face the kicker.
- Declare a forfeit.
- Allow play to continue as this is permitted by rule.
- Suspend the contest until the goalkeeper agrees to face the kicker.

During play, A1, the goalkeeper, is injured in a collision with B5, who is also injured. The referee stops play and calls the coach or trainer from both teams onto the field to attend to their players.

Since A1 is the goalkeeper, neither B5 nor A1 are required to leave the field. Both B5 and A1 must leave the field. B5 may be replaced by substitutes from the bench, and A1 must be replaced by substitutes from the bench.
B5 must leave the field and may be replaced.
A1 must leave the field and may be replaced.

B9 runs towards the ball, which is rolling on the ground near the right goal post. A3 faces B9, with the ball behind her, and extends her arms wide to prevent B9 from running past her to get the ball. A3 does not make physical contact with B9. The ball rolls over the goal line for a goal kick.

A3 is guilty of obstruction. The referee should award an indirect free kick to Team B.
A3 is guilty of pushing. The referee should award a penalty kick to Team B.
There is no offense, and a goal kick should be awarded.
A3 is guilty of pushing. The referee should award a penalty kick to Team B and disqualify A3 for serious foul play.

A player who is illegally equipped and whose coach is cautioned for the misconduct:
- Must correct the illegal equipment but is not required to leave the field of play.
- Must also be cautioned.
- Must leave the field of play and may not return until the next legal substitution opportunity.
- Must leave the field of play and can return at the next dead ball.

Player A2, in taking a penalty kick, approaches the ball and then stops abruptly. The goalkeeper dives to the side. A2 then kicks the ball and scores.

The referee shall award a goal and restart with a kick off.
The referee shall rule no goal and order the kick to be retaken.
The referee shall not award a goal and restart the game with a goal kick.
The referee shall caution the player for unsporting conduct.

The team may substitute an unlimited number of players. The team must replace the injured field player. The team may only replace the injured player. The team may substitute an unlimited number of players.
A player that commits a non-violent foul, attempting to deny an obvious goal-scoring opportunity, and the goal is not scored, shall be issued a (blue card), shall be disqualified (ejected) from further participation in the game, and shall not be replaced on the field by a substitute.

47 If on a penalty kick there is a deflection over the goal by the goalkeeper and no violation by either team, the restart is a:

- Indirect free kick.
- Retake.
- Goal Kick.

48 A player that commits an act of taunting (use of word or act to incite or degrade an opposing player, coach, referee or other individual) shall be:

- Issued a yellow card
- Issued a warning
- Issued a red card, disqualified from further participation and shall not be replaced on the field
- Issued a blue card, disqualified from further participation and shall not be replaced on the field

49 An indirect free kick is awarded to Team B. A player from Team A refuses to move the required 10 yards and then kicks the ball away.

- The referee shall issue a red card for taunting and award an indirect kick.
- The referee directs team B to retake the kick.
- A direct free kick should be awarded to Team B.
- The referee shall caution the player and award an indirect kick.

50 A dark jersey is defined as:

- Any color that incorporates black.
- Any color that contrasts with white.
- Black.
- Grey.